CGMiner 3.7.2 - GPU Mining Software (Litecoin Scrypt) 64 Bit

Miners are for the most part set up to run on very low-power processors, and the hardware usually does a lot of calculations to solve the puzzle as quickly as possible. But since Bitcoin mining is almost entirely decentralized, it's not possible to know who has the fastest hardware. In any case, what the needs of a given GPU will be is far more important than how fast its fastest components are. The code in this version of cgminer is mostly bug-free and compatible with all previous versions of cgminer.
