adult swim returns home to monday nights. the network, which launched in october 1996, begins its sixth season with a new batch of original animated series, made with a fresh voice and a new, free-wheeling format that relies on sprawling comedy sketches and creatively animated, moving-image shorts, often featuring celebrity voices and digital effects. "the thing i really liked about adult swim the first couple years was we had the freedom to do anything we wanted and nobody cared," says [chief content officer] mike lazzo. "we could be edgy, and now we're less edgy and it seems like everybody else is edgy, and we're the home for real kids, like 9-year-olds. from a business standpoint, we just wanted to be a little less edgy, to be honest." after another series, aqua teen hunger force, was removed from the timeslot, due to controversy over its substance, [14] rumors of adult swim discontinuing its entire slate circulated among fans. [15] to further questions about the show's future, animation director and assistant art director darrin higgins uploaded a two minute online trailer for a feature-length adaptation of the show on the popular video sharing website, youtube, under the title "death note: but the closer we are, the closer the crime.", uploaded on june 15, 2010. death note was remastered and broadcasted in high definition (hd) online on adult swim on july 5, 2007. the death note remaster movie, is available online, to death note desu nto complete series light at deathlock.com, updating the movie released online on october 20, 2009.
